Except for her time away at college, Christine has lived in the small town of Candor. A town so small, they don't even have a traffic light! Together, she and her husband Jamie have two adult children, Isaac and Emily. As a church pianist, AWANA leader and VBS teacher, God has called Christine to serve Him in many ways over the years.

When she retired from her 31 year career as a middle school math teacher, she prayed for ways to use her gift of teaching for the Lord. Never would she have imagined that God would lead her to begin a Good News Club in Candor! Christine is the Director overseeing three clubs they now have at McKendree Church. Her passion is to see children learn about God and His tremendous love for them as they decide to follow Him as their Savior!
